Summer in Buckley

The Buckley Summer Series live Music in the Park continues into August.

Buckley's Country Market, featuring various vendors and local artisans, will be onsite each week beginning at 5:00 pm. Music in the Park is from 6:30 to 8:00 p.m.

Thursday, August 2nd, John Hoover and the Mighty Quinn's will be performing a tribute to the music and spirit of John Denver.

On Wednesday, August 8th, The Coats, a nationally touring NW native acapella group will be bringing their unique and wonderful stylings to our stage.

The Youth Center continues its awesome summer offerings with FREE LUNCHES available through August for everyone 18 years old and younger, served 12-1 pm Monday – Friday. Enjoy the Annual Summer Fun Days featuring an hour of excitement and FUN at 1:00 pm every Thursday after lunch. Our August lineup includes an Inflatable Obstacle Course, Son of Reptile Man, Jeff Evans Magic Show and the Ian Dobson Steel Drum Show. Be sure and check the Youth Center Facebook page for dates and times, or call (360) 829-6534.

If you live in the White River or Carbonado School Districts and need help with clothing or school supplies, please contact Sheila Smith after August 10th.

It's important to call first, as the clothing bank has moved to a new location!

You can reach the clothing bank for an appointment at (360) 829-6605.

The White River Family Support Center, located at Wickersham Elementary, will also be providing school supplies this year on August 21st. Sign up early, as there are limited reservations and this popular event fills up fast! Please call Leah at (360) 829-5883 to register.
