Buckley Youth Activity Center– Spring is in the air!

The Buckley Youth Activity Center is will be offering a Workshop on Monday’s March 5th– April 9th, 2018 from 4-6P.M.

This workshop will focus on beginning drawing using the elements of shading and value with colored pencil, charcoal, and oil pastels. Students will create a variety of drawings to practice technique and will produce a final project in each medium. The Instructor will be Shawna Caraway, she has 10 years of experience teaching elementary and middle school art and especially enjoys the technicalities of sketching.

$55 for 6 sessions (pre-register only) or $10 per session

For questions or to register please contact Jenney or Rachael

Hanging Baskets

It's that time of year again

The days are getting longer and spring is in the air. It's time to plan for the beautiful baskets that have adorned our city parks and streets for several years. Again, we would like to please ask for a donation of $25

That helps offset the cost which is $50 per basket

Thank you!

Please fill out and return the portion below to help with the City's beautification project.

Buckley Business Corner – Big Burger & Teriyaki

The Charles Chon family moved to the City of Buckley in 2003, since that time they have continuously worked hard to build their business. With the help and support of our amazing community they continue to be successful not only as a business, but also as a part of our community. Their daughter Christina Chon has served as a Buckley Volunteer Firefighter/ EMT since 2013.

You will not be disappointed in their freshly prepared food using fresh vegetables, signature sauces & marinades. Many of us have several favorite dishes there! The business is located at 760 Main Street in Buckley, where you can dine in or call and place your orders for pick up at 360-829-1064. To see the full menu, read about the business, or to leave them feedback go to: <http://bigburgerteriyaki.wixsite.com/bigburgerteriyaki>
